Last Modified on 04/24/2020 9:43 am CDT

Per the USDA regulations for developmentally ready foods, there is no set age when developmentally ready foods must be served, as the development rate of infants varies between children. Print the Infant Feeding Details report to evaluate infants being served developmentally ready foods. This report shows foods served specifically to infants and provides information needed by users to determine the developmentally ready status of infants.

You print this report in KidKare.
